The Genetic Sequence of the COVID-19 Bioweapon

In his 135-page book “Is COVID-19 a Bioweapon? A Scientific and Forensic Investigation,” Dr. Richard M. Fleming decodes the genetic sequence of COVID-19. The nuclear cardiologist, lawyer, and medical researcher has discovered in this sequence, many—if not all—of the components of what he calls “a biological weapon.” He writes:

“SARS-CoV-1 was a genetically modified (gain-of-function) virus that was also a bioweapon developed by the Chinese Communist Party, with SARS-CoV-2 being the upgraded version of this bioweapon.”

The doctor determined this was the case mainly based on interviews—one of which is transcribed in the book—conducted with Dr. Li-Meng Yan, a Chinese medical doctor and virologist who escaped to the United States in 2020.

Fleming states Yan asserted that “SARS-CoV-1 was the first bioweapon and that SARS-CoV-2 is the advanced version.” Yan contends that the Chinese military knew about the development of artificial viruses as potential bioweapons, as revealed in the book. She is still in hiding in fear for her life.

In colorful charts and graphs, Fleming explains, in layman’s terms, each component in the SARS-CoV-2 sequence, detailing how each was likely added to the mix to create a potential monster out of existing viruses, in a Wuhan lab. The details of the genetic sequencing alone would make this book well worth purchasing.

The Likely Suspects

Fleming provides a paper trail pointing the finger at the likely suspects who funded what he calls a “criminal experiment.” In gain-of-function research, scientists and technicians enhance the lethal capability of viruses in order to “better understand how something like a coronavirus might mutate over time.” He states:

entists and physicians to stay ahead of such questions about what might happen naturally, this usually making those changes occur not in small steps naturally, but in larger steps that would most likely not happen at all.”

Fleming reports President Barack Obama banned gain-of-function from U.S. labs in October of 2014 after workers were exposed to anthrax. Yet, it reemerged several years later in China. Was it secretly funded by U.S. organizations in China while it was banned in the United States?

The US Government’s Investment in Biological Cleansing

Fleming provides financial documents from 2018 proving that gain-of-function research with bats was being conducted at the Wuhan Institute of Virology, funded by U.S. donors.

The doctor includes the dollar amounts various U.S. organizations contributed to this so-called research. Millions came from agencies connected to the U.S. government including the Department of Defense. He asks:

“What new pandemic now awaits humanity given this Gain-of-Function funding by the U.S. federal government—and other governments, corporations, and individuals—including SARS-CoV-2, viruses, bacteria, and biologic pathogenic agents?”

Fleming is also sounding the alarm about the efficacy and safety of COVID vaccines. Because he sees COVID as a lab-created bioweapon, he writes, “there are no real effective vaccines against the pandemic.”

Fleming warns about the danger of turning “the practice of medicine and honest scientific investigation over to the government,” as happened under the administration of Adolf Hitler. He writes:

“Many people over the years have decided what was best for humanity. Bill Gates has commented on more than one occasion that the use of clustered regularly interspersed short palindromic repeats technology would make it possible to ‘eliminate undesirable genes’ and ‘potentially swap in preferable alternatives’—a concept held by others in history, including Dr. Josef Mengele.”

Fleming cites that under Hitler, doctors became “biological soldiers” committed to “cleansing” the population of “inferior” genetic material.

Funding COVID—A Crime Against Humanity?

The doctor states that those responsible for funding and unleashing the COVID bioweapon are guilty of “crimes against humanity.” He calls for “criminal accountability” for those who caused “this devastation, destruction, and death across the planet.”

This incredibly well-documented, concise, and passionate book sheds an informative light on what may have really happened in Wuhan and gives detailed proof about who funded the so-called scientific research. It also provides some interesting speculation as to why the U.S. government got involved in the project while postulating a fascinating framework about what the funders may have hoped to obtain out of it.

Fleming is currently providing a free summary of his book in the kindle version on Amazon.
